Norris Center for the Performing Arts Theatre Use Guidelines

Thank you for your interest in the Norris Center for the Performing Arts (NCPA). The staff is dedicated to making every effort to ensure the success of each event held in our facilities. The following are NCPA Use Guidelines for the Norris Theatre have been developed to assist you (Licensee) in planning your event.

General Rules and Regulations

- Authorized Areas – Licensee will have access to only those areas specified in the Rental Contract.
- Licensee (responsible party)- identified on the Rental Contract must be present for the entire reservation and will accept full financial responsibility for damage and/or missing property.
- Food & Beverage – No food or drinks are permitted inside the theatre at any time. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited in backstage areas.
- Smoking – The Norris Center for the Performing Arts is a non-smoking facility. There are ashtrays located just outside facility entrances for the convenience of your guests who smoke.
- Safety- Shoes must be worn at all times in all areas inside and outside the theatre. Without exception.
- NCPA Policies – Licensee is responsible for informing all guests of NCPA policies and procedures.

EVENTS

- Services included in rental fee – The basic rental fee includes normal overhead lighting, heating/air conditioning, plus any other equipment as designated by the Rental Contract and/or approved Facility Use Application.
- Overtime Charges – Licensee will be charged time and one-half of hourly technical and/or event coordination fees for any extended period not specified on contract.

- Required Personnel – Event coordination and/or technical staff are mandatory for each event held in NCPA facilities. The number of personnel required for each individual event will be determined by the Technical Director at the Production Meeting. NCPA staff use is charged at an hourly rate throughout the duration of the Rental Contract period.
- Concession Sales – No sales, distribution of merchandise, or special services are allowed without the prior authorization by NCPA management.
- Animals - No live animals are allowed in the theatre facility without the express prior written authorization by NCPA management.
- Authorized areas of facility use- Allowable areas of use by the Licensee are restricted to and include: The lobby of the theatre, the Green Room, the Garden Room, stage areas, dressing rooms and restrooms located in the basement dressing room area.
- Entrance to the facility –Licensee and scheduled performers only are allowed to enter through the Green Room / artists’ side theatre entrance.
- Recording devices- No cameras, recorders, or video cameras are allowed, without prior authorization. Flash photography is generally prohibited without Licensee consent.
- Event performances- The front doors to the theatre open 45 minutes prior to ‘curtain time’ of scheduled performances. The interior doors into the theatre are opened upon request of Licensee or at the discretion of the NCPA House Manager.
- Event Promotion - No advertising materials may be displayed in the interior or exterior or in any other location of the facility without prior authorization and content approval from NCPA management – without exception.
- Advertising- fliers, posters and show program information must be approved a by the NCPA management prior to being printed and distributed. It must be clearly stated that the NCPA is not producing or presenting licensee events.

TICKETS

- Any Lessee desiring to charge an admission fee and/or distribute tickets must use the NCPA Box Office. Only NCPA tickets will be accepted for admission to the event.
- For purposes of crowd control, NCPA tickets are required for all performances, fundraising events, and/or other special. For such events, each person attending, regardless of age, must have a ticket. It is the responsibility of the Lessee to ensure that all special guests, participants, performers, etc. are included in the overall ticket count.

- If special guests, press, etc. are to pick up tickets upon arrival to the event, Lessee must provide NCPA staff with a Guest List in advance. Lessee must also provide a representative at entrance to handle ticketing questions or problems.

PAYMENT OF FEES

- The Lessee must pay all fees to NCPA by cash, check, money order or credit/debit cards. Visa and MasterCard are accepted.
- A $500.00 deposit is required at the time the reservation is made in order to hold the date(s) for use of the facility.
- All charges outlined in the Rental Contract must be paid on time. Failure to pay estimated fees by the due date may result in cancellation of Lessee's reservation.
- If for any reason an event is cancelled by the Lessee, refunds of advance deposits shall be made only with prior written approval of NCPA Management. Written notice of cancellation must be submitted to NCPA Management. In the event Lessee provides notice in writing of cancellation less than ninety (90) days in advance of the first day of the Rental Contract period, any fees paid up to the date of receipt by NCPA of notice of cancellation shall not be refundable.
